

Scholastic's LBook and rBook offer California's schools the best strategic curriculum. CORE will help your teachers deliver the best strategic instruction.

CORE's Strategic Training Overview:

Participants will learn, practice, refine, plan, and return to the classroom prepared, energized, and ready to fully implement sequential LBook and rBook instruction.

The two-session implementation training includes:

- How to provide high-quality daily instruction using structured interaction and key routines that increase the acquisition of academic vocabulary
- Detailed coverage of the sequence and interconnected features of the LBook and rBook, and how to deliver explicit, form-focused instruction utilizing structured verbal and written responses
- Guided practice to effectively plan and implement needs-based, strategic instruction and monitor progress
- A deep understanding of the defining elements of explicit instruction and how to deliver accountable contexts for cognitive and linguistic achievement
- Hands-on exploration of the Scholastic Reading Inventory and formative assessments to identify targeted instruction
- Strategies and tools to bolster instruction during core reading/language arts or content areas to yield maximum results for English learners and strategic students

Highlights Include:

Instructional video clips of best practices from Dr. Kate Kinsella and daily practice using routines with LBook and rBook lessons, and pacing connections to many other core reading/language arts programs.

Audience: All educators teaching or implementing Scholastic's Strategic LBook/rBook Solution

Length: 2 days

Make your implementation a success with ongoing site support! Our experts, trained by Dr. Kate Kinsella, will guide your administrators, coaches, and teachers with demo lessons, walk-throughs, and support that maximize strategic LBook/rBook instruction.

Institutionalize Implementation (Site-based, 8-14 days)

To ensure full and complete implementation, CORE provides highly skilled program specialists to work directly in your schools with your principals, literacy coaches, department heads, and teachers to provide refined program practice, model lessons, and targeted coaching, all guided by facilitated data analysis.
